Barbecue & Raffle
The August Meeting

The August 1 meeting of the Historical Association will be our Sixth Annual Barbecue & Raffle. The place will be the Patio area at the Mountain View Senior Center, 266 Escuela Ave. This is the same location as for last three years.

The membership was mailed a flyer recently about the Barbecue & Raffle. The flyer included a form to clip and return, along with your check, to let the Association know how many to plan for and how much food to prepare. If you lost the flyer, this Newsletter contains all of the necessary information, so clip the form and send it in! Do it! The Association needs to know you're coming!

Mark Rogge, the City Engineer managing the restoration of the Adobe Building will give us a brief update and take questions. The business meeting will be very brief. This year we are again planning a little live music to aid the conversation and digestion. Al Jehning will be doing his magic with the hamburgers. There will, of course, be the usual fabulous raffle prizes.

The important part of the day is the opportunity to get together with friends and acquaintances for relaxed socializing. Bring your friends. If they are not members, we'll still welcome them. Perhaps they might even be persuaded to join. Anyway, let us know you're coming, and we'll see you at the Sixth Annual Barbecue & Raffle on Sunday, August 1.

Periods of Industry
Family Industries
in Mountain View
May, 1999 Meeting

The Sunday, May 2, 1999, meeting of the Mountain View Historical Association was the second in the series on Periods of Industry in Mountain View. The program included two family enterprises: A presentation by Trudy Herrero Odbert about the Herrero family and Spanish Sausages, and a presentation by Mario Ambra and his sister Cathy Ambra, and described the production of Olive Oil.

Trudy's father was born in Spain. Her parents were married in 1914, and had three children, all born in San Francisco. In 1921 they moved to Mountain View at the corner of what is now Shoreline and US 101. The family Spanish Sausage business was started on the ranch in 1930 in a 40 by 60 foot building with two rows of stainless steel tables. A sample sausage press was on display at the meeting. The sausage was smoked for two weeks and then delivered to customers in Mountain View, San Francisco, Sunnyvale and Oakland. In 1938 the family opened a store at the corner of View and El Camino. Trudy's father retired in 1962.

Mario Ambra and his sister Cathy's grandparents were from Sicily and arrived in San Francisco in 1909, where he was employed as a carpenter. In 1923 they bought the property off Rengstorff, near US 101. By 1933 they were in full olive oil production. The last production of olive oil was in 1993. The olive trees were beaten to cause the fruit to drop to the ground. The fruit was then trucked, cleaned, dried, pulped and pressed. The oil was pumped to tanks and a separator, then filtered and bottled. 125 pounds of olives were required for each gallon. Olives sold for $120 per ton.

Two very interesting and informative presentations.

ADOBE BUILDING RESTORATION

A few weeks ago we mailed a one page update on the status of the campaign to Save the Adobe. The following are really excerpts from that update.

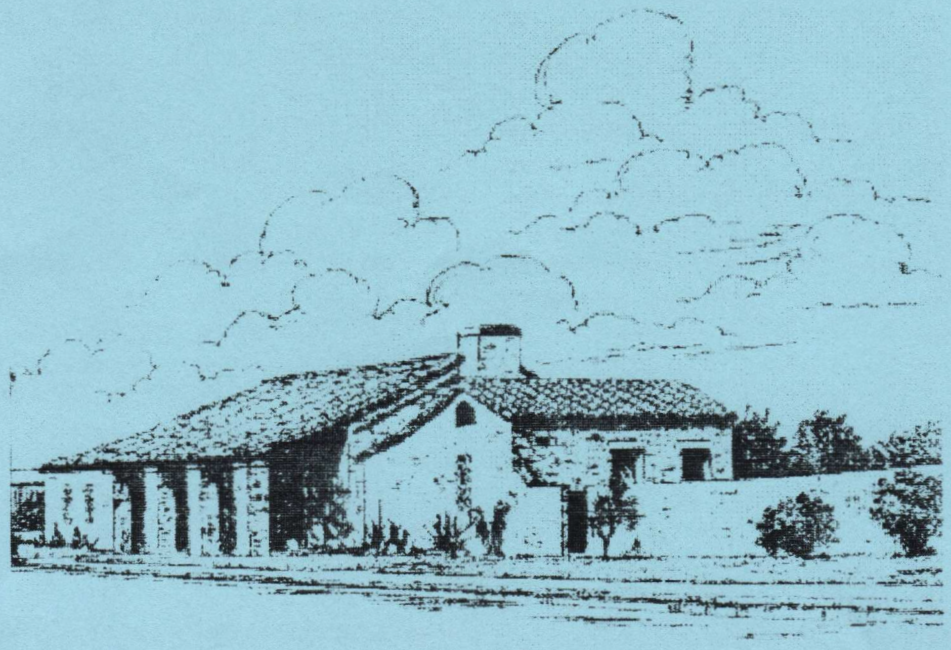

The City is proceeding with the Restoration. Mark Rogge, P.E., Senior Civil Engineer in the Public Works Department will manage the project for the City, with Page and Turnbull, restoration architects. Mark managed the successful Rengstorff House restoration project. He will be our guest at the August 1, 1999, Sixth Annual Barbecue and Raffle. He will give us a progress report and tell us what we can do to help with the restoration.

You can help preserve history, and assist in making records accurate and complete. During the Rengstorff House restoration artifacts and photographs helped accurately restore the building's architectural features. Important pieces were received from people who removed them for preservation. These donations were vital in completing details that enrich the House's historic and architectural integrity.

Please share your photographs, artifacts, records or clear recollections of the Adobe Building. Of particularly interested are photographs, interior and exterior, in the period from the Adobe's construction in 1934 until 1954. Also in preparation is a timeline of the activities that occurred at the Adobe Building. Let us know what activities you participated in. Of interest are newsletters, notices or announcements for meetings or other events at the Adobe Building.

Information, photographs, or personal recollections may either be donated to the Mountain View History Center at the Public Library or we can arrange to copy them. We can arrange to photograph artifacts not suitable for the History Center collections. Please contact Mark Rogge, Senior Civil Engineer at: or by e-mail at mark.rogge@ci.mtnview.ca.us.

A special thanks to Lorraine Martin of Oregon who sent copies of her wedding pictures at the Adobe and a letter describing the Adobe as it was on her Wedding Day. This is the kind of help we need to restore the Adobe. Thanks Lorraine! Anyone else with pictures or memories to share?

Historical Photos On-Line
By Carol Fischer

Over the past six months, there has been a beehive of activity in the Mountain View History Center concerning the Historical Association's photograph collection. With the approval of the City of Mountain View, librarians Michael Lapointe and Carol Fischer have been busy organizing all the photographs belonging to the Historical Association. Each photograph has been placed into archival sleeves and then organized into appropriate subject areas. The next step is to catalog and scan each photograph so that it will appear in the library's on-line catalog. Since this catalog is also accessible through the Internet, these photographs will be available for viewing worldwide!

This project has been funded for two years. Eventually the library's photographs will receive the same organizing, cataloging and scanning as is being done with the Historical Association's collection. It was decided to begin with the Historical Association's photos because they are older and best capture the flavor of our city's heritage. The scanning process does not harm these precious photographs. They look very clear on the computer screen and can be zoomed in for a more detailed look. However the images do not print of a quality that can be used in books or papers. It is hoped that when people see the delightful images found in the Mountain View History Center, they will be enticed to come look at the real photograph and use the many resources of our collection.

A few of the images have been catalogued and scanned already. If you are interested in seeing them on your computer, here are the directions:

1. Go to the library's catalog by typing in: library.ci.mtnview.ca.us
2. Click on "Search the Catalog"
3. Choose "Call Number"
4. Type in "pha" — this abbreviation stands for "photographs Historical Association"

Because these photographs have been given full cataloging, they can be searched by such keywords as "baseball teams Mountain View". When all the photographs are cataloged, you will be able to search a person's name and a picture of that person will appear or perhaps a match will be made for their house or business. Images of Castro Street, Moffett Field, schools, orchards and buildings are only a few of the photographs that will soon be available. This powerful and exciting searching capability allows our photographic treasures to be accessible to the world!

In Commemoration

Willard L. Krogh — Age 79. Died July 3, 1999. Beloved husband and father. Survived by his wife Helen Shearer Krogh of Los Altos, son and daughter-in-law Derek and Paula Krogh of La Honda and nephews Jerry Krogh of Sunnyvale, Eric Petersen of Saginaw, MI and Fred Petersen of Reno, NV. Wife Helen Shearer Krogh is a life member of the Mountain View Historical Association.

Helen Pace Newfarmer Gross Shepard Remington — Age 89. Died April 21, 1999 in Mountain View. Born in Colorado. Survived by three daughters, Erlys Jedlicka, Deane Slane, Carole Rock, one son, Don Newfarmer and two sisters, Margaret Nostrand of Pioneer, CA and Shirley Newfarmer of Marysville, CA. She had ten grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren. Her hobbies were her computer, reading, cards and mahjong. She was an active member of the Mountain View Historical Association and the Mountain View Quota Club. A lovely person, she will be missed.

OLD NEWSPAPER ITEMS
Compiled by Barbara Kinchen

100 Years Ago (1899): Members of the town's baseball team were known as Pumpkin Rollers.

A school report showed a total of 274 pupils enrolled, taught by a principal and five teachers. E.E. Brownell had 36 students, Eugenie Gairaud 29, Edna Lauer 45,Estelle Barrows 52, Janet Cutter 49 and Clara Halsey 63. Mr. Brownell resigned during the summer and Frank L. Huff was selected to take his place.

Isaac Newton Graham died August 4, 1899 at age 76. He and family settled in this area in 1852.

(In 1958 new schools were named for Graham and Huff.)

75 Years Ago (1924): One Matron to another, "Wouldn't it be simply swell if you could turn in your old husband as part pay for a new one like they do for automobiles?"

Thirty workers are employed year round at the pickle works and another fifty hired this season to process the expected 1200 tons of cucumbers and 9000 tons of tomatoes for catsup.

Across the tracks, Clark's Cannery is running at capacity, but unable to fill all orders for tomatoes, peaches and pears. Raspberry jam is being made and packed for W.P. Angelo of Mountain View who hopes to have it in local grocery stores by late September.

Only 50% of Mountain View's 891 registered voters took time to vote in the primary election. All banks were closed for that day.

T.L. Carey, of the Oaks Dairy on Grant Road, won prizes at the State Fair for his raw milk and cream.

Two gambling "resorts" in Chinatown were raided and 18 orientals arrested and brought before Judge Maxwell.

In traffic court two men were fined $5 each for "cutting corners" and a 16 year old, in trouble a number of times, was ordered not to drive for six months.

Chamber of Commerce and Rotary were holding their noontime meetings in the new dining room at Randall's Confectionery.

The Pacific Press Lyceum Bureau sponsored a two-hour lecture, Is the Bible True?, by the great orator William Jennings Bryan. The auditorium at the new high school on Castro Street was filled and 100 prominent local folks were seated on the stage. Mr. Bryan was met in San Francisco and escorted by car to Mountain View where he was entertained at luncheon. The Pacific Press Band played for a half hour before the lecture.

50 Years Ago (1949): Mountain View had a four day Centennial Celebration – parade, pageant, games, prizes, food and fun. Trini Calvo won the Queen Contest and movies were taken throughout the events and shown later at the local theater.

The Chamber of Commerce awarded its Man of the Month Award to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eaton for outstanding work on the Centennial and elected Bill Henderson its president.

A Business and Professional Woman's Club was formed.

Many new commercial buildings were under construction: Post Office and Calvalli Building, into which the 5&10 Market will move, on Dana east of Castro; on Dana between Castro and Franklin J.V. Manfredi and Paul Gibson are building multi-store buildings. Penney's new store is not yet complete on Castro and next to it will be the new two-story Manfredi real estate office.

Colonial Oaks Turkey Farm was at 300 Grant Road and gelatin and pudding deserts were produced at O-My Food Products on Front Street. (The Desk Depot later occupied the building.)

Larry Douglass' model plane won him a scholarship at the Mountain View Airport, where Jack Simonic is owner-manager.

25 Years Ago (1974): Diagonal parking was to have a six months trial on Castro Street.

Numerous events were scheduled for Mrs. Millena "Millie" Waits' 100th birthday.

Home Savings bought the Mancini Motor property at El Camino and Castro and will put up a new building. The landmark tower and globe from the 1939 Treasure Island World Fair will probably be destroyed.

Gemello Winery, established in the 1930s, has been sold to the Felice family of Gilroy and plans are underway for wine tastings, tours and outdoor concerts.

Firemen celebrated the 1874 founding of the Mountain View Fire Department with a display of antique equipment, mini muster and picnic.

Room rates were raised at El Camino Hospital by several dollars, bringing a surgical private room to $91.50 per day. An emergency room visit would go to $18.50.

The Chamber of Commerce sponsored the third annual Art and Wine Festival, Fiesta de Sierra Vista, with John Cappelletti as chairman.

Rotary celebrated fifty years in Mountain View. Jim Atkinson, 86, only charter member still active, recalled the first meetings which were held in the "fleabag" movie house and that Larry Randall punched a hole from his next door confectionery store in order to pass through sandwiches. A short time later Randall enlarged his store and the club moved out of the theater. (See 1924 items.)

Executive Committee Meeting

The Executive Committee of the Mountain View Historical Association met on June 4, 1999.

The treasurer reported the expenditure of $2031.25 toward the publication of the hard cover History of Mountain View. A letter from the author preparing the volume indicates reasonable progress on the book.

Planning for the Sixth Annual Barbecue and Raffle are underway. A flyer will be mailed the week of July 5, and the Newsletter will include event information.

The Executive Committee directed that a flyer updating the status of the Adobe Building be mailed to the membership.

The Membership Report and the Treasurer's Report are included elsewhere in this Newsletter.

Street Talk From Barbara Kinchen

The May Street Talk Puzzler was: Several streets in Mountain View carry the names of breeds of chickens. What? Where? Why?

Did you check maps for streets named for chicken breeds? And did you find Leghorn, Plymouth, Rock and Wyandotte off Rengstorff Avenue between Middlefield RD and 101? Thank goodness Spitzhauben and Transylvainian Naked Necks were not used. The Fred Oetjen family had a chicken ranch on Independence. Do you know of others and who did the naming?

For this issue the Street Talk Puzzler is: What was Dalma Drive's previous name?
