Silicon Valley: Exploring the Communities Behind the Digital Revolution

Presented By

Mr. David A. Laws

The February Meeting

Mr. David A. Laws is a travel writer/photographer who has worked for Silicon Valley semiconductor companies for more than 30 years. Mr. Laws talk will be based upon his photo essay and guide to Santa Clara Valley landscape and communities where scientists and engineers learned how to turn sand (silicon) into gold (computer chips). He will show slides and a presentation that uses signature buildings and landscapes, from missions and orchards to factories and high-tech offices, to tell the story of this extraordinary region that nurtured a world wide revolution in the way we live, work and play. Copies of Mr. Laws' book will be available for examination or purchase.

Note that the place for the meeting will be The Mountain View Library Community Room, 585 Franklin Street in downtown Mountain View.

Roberta and Joseph Sweeney were married January 26, 1936, In New Jersey. That makes January of 2004 their sixty-eighth anniversary! They are both long timemembers of the Mountain View Historical Association, and both are past Presidents. Congratulations, and best wishes for many more happy years.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I wish for each of you a "Happy and Prosperous 2004".

In 2003 we revised our By-Laws and published a new brochure that presents MVHA. It also serves as a membership application and Milestones order form. John Viscovich headed up our successful Barbeque and Raffle in August. The general meeting programs throughout the year, arranged by Wally Erichsen, were outstanding.

2004 events will include our regular meetings in February and May with the Barbeque and Raffle in August and the Annual Meeting in November, featuring the election of officers to serve through the next two years.

Promotion of "Milestones" sales will continue with the A La Carte and Art Festival in May and the Art and Wine Festival in September, as well as at the Mountain View High School Alumni Picnic at Cuesta Park on the first Saturday in October.

Recently I needed to check some information regarding past events in the history of MVHA. Thanks to help from our resourceful historian, Barbara Kinchen, my task was quite easy. The document Barbara showed me was written about the founding and development of the Mountain View Pioneer and Historical Association, written by historian Mildred Winters, probably in the mid to late 1980's. The word "Pioneer" was deleted from our name in 1990 via a By-Laws change. Other important dates for our Association:

- Our Association was founded in 1954 with Eleanor Dale initiating the project.
- In 1957 the Association was incorporated as a non-profit organization in accordance with the laws of the State of California.
- In 1964 we were listed as a non-profit organization under Section 501 ©) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

I found the four-page article by Mildred Winters to be interesting and informative. It is available for reading at the Mountain View History Room at the Library on any Tuesday from 1 to 5 p.m.

OLD NEWSPAPER ITEMS COMPILED BY BARBARA KINCHEN

100 Years Ago (1903): The Carlin's Blue Front Restaurant is very popular. Upstairs the family has eleven rental rooms and the only public bath room in town. The charge for a bath is 25¢.

A Government Experimental Wine Vineyard has been established on the Distel farm on El Camino Real. The purpose is to find which variety of grapes is best in the soil and climate of the country.

The new brick cooperative Fruit Packing House fronts off the railroad tracks near Franklin Street. It is 50 X 150 feet and equipped to handle the expected prune crop of 300 tons.

During the month of November 100 train loads of young oysters have been shipped from the East to transplant into the Morgan Oyster Co. Beds along San Francisco Bay, from Belmont to Alviso, including those at Mountain View.

The ordinance licensing slot machines was repealed by the town trustees. Rev. Ingram, Cyrus P. Berry and Albert M. Crittenden had asked that all 15 machines be banned. They estimated that residents were putting $100 each quarter in each machine, money which should have been spent on family needs.

75 Years Ago (1928): Each classroom in the new Highway Grammar School is equipped with a radio connection and each Thursday morning students will be listening to lectures on music, sponsored by Standard Oil.

"Love makes the world go round, besides turning a good many heads."

Capt. Delbert Brunton, teacher of science at Chico State, was hired as principal at the high school to replace Mr. Otto who resigned.

Joseph C. Rose was found guilty and sentenced to one to twenty-five years in San Quentin for setting the fire which destroyed St. Joseph's Church on March 18th.

Edward E. Myrea, local baritone, has been invited to be official soloist at the Eastern Star convention in Sacramento.

50 Years Ago (1953): An early November storm with gale-like winds dumped over two inches of rain on the area. Street lights were damaged in Mountain view and the roof of the Ben Franklin store on Castro Street flooded, sagged and then split open.

Building permits were issued for two new $10,000 homes to be built at 1331 and 1453 Lloyd Way. Roof replacement costs were approximately $250. Doughnuts were 35¢ a dozen at Food City bakery department.

Groundbreakings reported: Two hundred Eichler homes started at the old Mountain View Airport property near San Antonio and Middlefield Roads. The three-bedroom, two-bath house will be available with no down payment and $80 a month. St. Paul Lutheran Church is going up on El Monte Avenue. A $25,000 office building at 380 Castro Street will house Lawson real estate and insurance, law offices for Malovos, Mager, Newcomer and Chasuk and Pep Martinez's barber shop.

The Kitty Kelly Begonia Gardens, 2042 El Camino Real, held a "Going Out of Business" sale.

Fire gutted the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall on Moffett Boulevard. The probable cause was cigarette butts emptied into a cardboard container.

25 Years Ago (1978): Ed Henderson, "Mountain View's Friendly Cop", is turning in his badge after 30 years service in the local police force.

Mountain View's first Mexican-American councilman, Joe Perez, resigned for health reason in December and died shortly thereafter.

Special ceremonies marked the beginning of a five-month $780,000 revitalization project in the down-town area. Included were a small gateway park at Castro and Evelyn Streets, new street lighting and traffic signals, brick crosswalks and intersection, and landscaped mid-block plazas.

The long labor dispute between firemen and the city dominated newspaper headlines the last three months of 1978. Threatened strikes, court injunctions, pay-docking, work slow-downs, disciplinary hearings and restraining orders and petitions were all reported in detail. Council did grant a 6% pay raise and slight increases in medical and dental insurance in December. And residents would be voting in 1979 on whether future negotiations would be subject to arbitration.

In Commemoration

Lena Marie Alameda: — Passed peacefully at Milpitas Care Center on December 26, 2003. A native of Centerville, CA, born April 2, 1898. Raised in the Centerville area, she moved to Mountain view where she lived for 85 years. She was a clerk at Wagner's Drug Store in Mountain View for 60 years.

Lena Alameda celebrated her 105th birthday April 2, 2003, at a party held at the Milpitas Care Center, her home. She was surrounded by long-time friends and family members. MVHA President Ralph Faravelli read a proclamation, much to Ms. Alameda's delight, signed by Mayor Sally Lieber.

Lena was a Special Member of the Mountain View Historical Association, a Native Daughter of the Golden West, for 60 years treasurer of the Young Ladies Institute and a member of IFES. The MVHA recognized her birthday by the presentation of a beautiful orchid plant.

Street Talk
By Barbara Kinchen

The August (2003) Street Talk question was: Paul Avenue and Jessie Lane are named for what Mountain View family? And the answer is:

Paul Fretz, realtor and developer, honored his parents by naming two streets for them. Paul Avenue is named for Commander Paul H. Fretz and Jessie Lane for Mrs. Jessie Johnson Fretz. The Fretz family home, Marymeade, was at Grant Road and Fremont Avenue and eventually was occupied by the Medical Mission Sisters.

New Question: True or False: Peacock Avenue was named for the farm where peacocks were raised in the late 1980s for their feathers.

Some Castro Family Genealogy From Barbara Kinchen

It was a pleasure having Cris Castro at the August meeting, along with his son, daughter-in-law and their young son. Crisanto Roque Castro IV is a member of our Association and a descendant of the Mountain View Castro family. Mariano Castro who acquired the land which later became Mountain View and Sunnyvale, had a son, Crisanto, who lived and raised his nine children here. One of his sons he named Crisanto Roque Castro, Jr. This Crisanto never married, but Joseph Roque Castro, a brother, did and carried on the name with a son, Crisanto Roque Castro III, the father of our member. We have pictures of Crisanto Roque Castro III as a grammar school student in Mountain View as well a his graduation photo in the high school 1925 Blue and Gray. He sang in the chorus and played tackle on the football team.

New to the Mountain View History Center By Barbara Kinchen

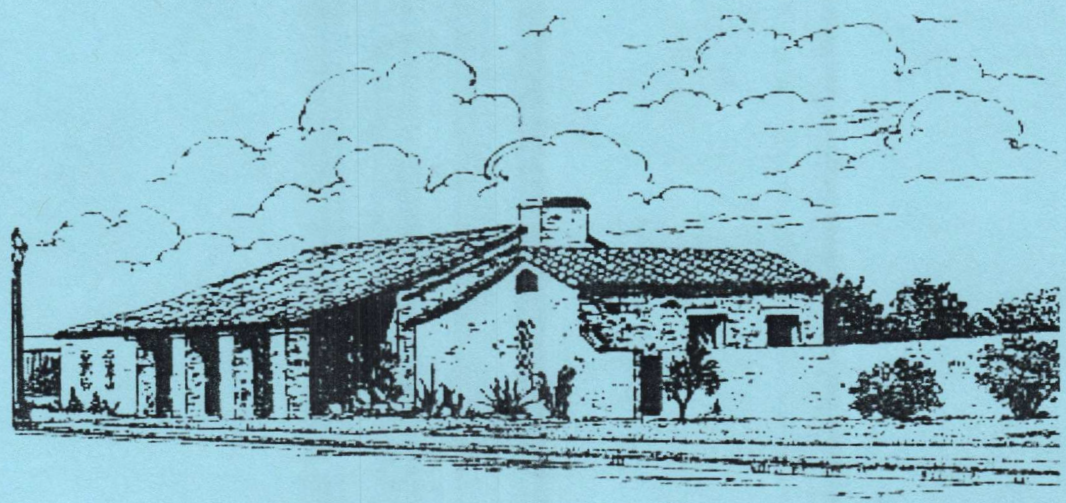

From Craig Holden: Group photo of 18 young people, members of the Trinity Methodist Church Youth Fellowship in 1946. Also a copy of a 1923 Mountain View Sentinel newspaper published by E.R. Button. The cover and one interior page were drawn by Harry Holden, Craig's father.

From Don Lawson: Programs, one for 1938 Senior night, Mountain View High School and one for the light opera, "The Marriage of Nanette", presented at the school in 1935. The latter has autographs of many of the cast and production workers.

From Betty Engberg: San Jose State College yearbook, La Torre, 1938.

From Madeline Vierra Borges: Packet of information regarding the Portuguese S.F.V. Lodge at 361 Villa Street. (Sociedade d Festa Vilha do Divino Espirito Santo No. I) There is a short history of the organization and about 25 pictures of various sizes of parades, other groups, individuals, aerial photos and one of the 1926 original members taken at the Costa dairy.

From Patricia Allen Scheid: Copies of two 8" X 10" photos of Mrs. Clelia Anzini nee Barri. The Anzini family owned and operated the Junction Inn at El Monte and El Camino Real.
