MISS EDITH LANDELS --
WELL LOVED KINDERGARTEN TEACHER
PRESENTED BY DONALD LAWSON
SUNDAY, MAY 7, 2006 at 2 pm

Donald Lawson, a long time resident of Mountain View and early student of Miss Landels, will tell stories of her influence over generations of children during the entire life of the Dana Street School from 1917 until its closure in 1959. Her 44 years as a teacher ended after one year at the school named in her honor. She devoted her life to creating an eagerness for learning in her kindergarten children. Students to this day remember her with great affection.

Don was a U.S. Navy meteorologist at Moffett Field during WWII and later a Supervisor in the Mountain View Post Office.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE BY NICK GALIOTTO

On Saturday, February 4, many of our members enjoyed a tour of the Computer History Museum, which took the place of our regular quarterly membership meeting. We saw what a great asset the Computer History Museum is for Mountain View. For many of us, the tour demonstrated the importance of preserving and displaying history and reinforced our purpose as members of the Mountain View Historical Association.

Also in February, I had the pleasure of presenting a Mayor's Proclamation at a commemorative event marking Mountain View as the birthplace of Silicon Valley. The Computer History Museum and the MVHA sponsored the recognition of the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the Shockley Semiconductor Lab in Mountain View.

Our Executive Committee met on March 22 and approved participating again in the Arts & Ala Carte Festival in May. Please consider assisting Hip Telmont with our booth. This contributes to our organization's "presence" in the community.

Wally Erichsen reports that his ad hoc committee members, consisting of Wally, Anne Bakotich, Al Jehning, Barbara Kinchen, Vivian Schatz, John Viscovich and Bob Weaver, are moving forward with a proposal to establish a Heritage Orchard and History Museum in the Cuesta Park Annex. A 3-D layout needs to be prepared which will be submitted to the City during its master planning process for this site. The committee is looking for some "pro bono" assistance from someone with architectural skills.

The membership meeting program in May will feature first-hand memories of Edith Landels, a teacher that touched the lives of many in Mountain View. Encourage your friends to attend our meetings. They will learn of Mountain View's colorful past and mingle with some of those that have lived it. That's what we're about. See you on Sunday, May 7th !!

OLD NEWSPAPER ITEMS COMPILED BY BARBARA KINCHEN

100 YEARS AGO (1906): From the Mountain View Register of April 20, 1906, just after the great earthquake.

"Mountain View certainly presents a sorry sight. The east and west walls of the Pacific Press are down. Mr. Weilheimer's building, occupied by Farr's implement business, is skewered over to the south and is in danger of collapse. Mr. Swall's brick building, occupied by Allen & Co.'s furniture store, now is a shapeless pile of bricks and Merchant's State Bank is cracked and is in danger of losing the top coping on the north side; the beautiful D.T. Ames brick block building is merely a pile of unsteady bricks ready to fall at any time; the Carlin frame building is tipped and unsteady; the Roger's block building and the Post Office is a pile of bricks on top of $30,000 stock of goods; Olympic Hall is debris with Wm. Neuroth's handsome fixtures and stock on the under side; the Bank of Mountain View building is cracked; the huge town water tanks tower is a pile of splintered timber; the Mountain View Fruit Exchange lies as a brick pile with an unsure roof over it; the tall chimney at the Whelan Brick Works is a thing of the past; besides much other damage; broken water tanks throughout the town and county; the man who has a chimney left is envied by his neighbors; plastering down; buildings off their foundations; broken china and knick-knacks; and what is worse in many instances, the fear of danger to loved ones in less fortunate and unhappy San Francisco."

50 YEARS AGO (1956): New to Mountain View:

--Lindy's Jewelers opened by Bob Lindberg at 166 Castro Street.
--A&W Root Beer Drive-In on Moffett Boulevard.
--Ivy's Gift Shop at 220 Castro Street.
--Whisman District's Monta Loma School on Thompson Avenue.
--Blossom Plaza Supermarket, 1750 Miramonte Avenue. (The first business to open in the new Blossom Plaza development.)

Over 800 kids participated in the annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the City and Lion's Club and held at both the park and Women's Club on Castro Street. Prizes included bikes, Easter bunnies and theatre passes.

Honored for 35-year- membership in Leon Robart Post of the American Legion were: Frank Glann, James Graham, Ray Lorecks, H. C. Sayre, Maurice Daubin, Glenn Wilson and Everett Lawson.

25 YEARS AGO (1981): Stan Thompson, business services manager, retired after 35 years with Mountain View-Los Altos Union High School District.

Marilyn Perry is the new Mayor and Pat Figueroa the Vice-Mayor. The first time both positions have been held by women.

Thieves used a car to break through the reinforced steel back door of Eddy's Sport Shop on Castro Street and stole 14 guns. Police state the store has been broken into seven times in the last five years.

Three times a week, "bug bomber" planes, flying out of Moffett Field, drop millions of sterile Mediterranean fruit flies over Santa Clara County.

Gilda Kabbani, operator of hot dog wagons in Sunnyvale, San Jose and Mountain View, will open a restaurant, Gilda's Big Apple at 126 Castro Street. This was formerly the Working Man's Clothing Store, with a massage parlor at the back alley.

After 35 years in Mountain View producing amusement rides such as the Bat, Corkscrew and Boomerang, the former Arrow Development Corporation is moving to Utah. A Switzerland company purchased the business in January.

Karl and Kathy Maier opened Mountain View's first bed and breakfast establishment in the Julius Weilheimer house at 938 Villa Street (now Chez TJ).

STREET TALK BY BARBARA KINCHEN

Wild Cherry Lane and Blossom Lane are elegant names for two downtown alleys. They are at the rear of Castro Street businesses; each beginning at Evelyn Avenue and go south for only a few blocks.

NEW QUESTION

What is the name and exact location of Mountain View's newest street? It is north of Highway 101, very short and there are questions about the spelling and pronouncing.

NEW TO THE MOUNTAIN VIEW HISTORY CENTER

Nothing new to report this quarter

IN MEMORIAM

PATRICIA JANE REYBURN: Passed away on January 17, 2006 in Honolulu, Hawaii, where she was residing with her granddaughter Chenoa and her family.

Patricia was born in Santa Cruz on January 30, 1910. When she was 2-1/2, she moved into the Southern Pacific Depot in Mountain View with her father Chester F. Awalt, then depot master, her brother Robert and sister Doris.

Patricia graduated from Mountain View Union High School in 1927. She then began working as a stenographer for Hartey Hardware. In 1932 she married Harlan Reyburn, who was the son of a former local Cumberland Presbyterian Church pastor. During the years her husband was in the Navy or they lived elsewhere, Patricia and family returned to Mountain View often to visit family on Bailey Avenue and Sierra Avenue.

Patricia was predeceased by her husband Harlan (1979) and daughter Barbara (Bernie) Selna of El Granada. She is survived by her son Alan (Loretta) Reyburn of Stockton and daughter, Jean Weston of Waikoloa, Hawaii. She was a life member of the Mountain View Historical Association.
