President's Message

By Patricia Figueroa
MVHA President

Greetings everyone,

Thanks to all of you that came to the annual BBQ and helped make it such a success. Putting on a BBQ takes the work of many – a special thank you to Helene Hughes for again chairing this successful event, and thank you seems like such a small word for all the work done by all of you who helped shop, prepare, cook, set-up and clean-up.

We are also very grateful to those who donated to our Raffle and Silent Auction. Thank you to Amici's Pizza; Baskin Robbins (Mountain View); Book Buyers; Byington Winery; Cascal Restaurant; Costco; Mountain View Firefighters ; Frankie, Johnnie & Luigi's; Gelato Classico; Hobee's; JLohr Winery; Morrocco's Restaurant; Mountain View Center for Performing Arts; Nob Hill; Ross; Safeway; Shoreline Golf Links; The Fish Market; and Winchester Mystery House.

It's time for our Fall General Membership meeting and this will be a very interesting meeting. For those of you who haven't already met our Newsletter Editor Nick Perry, join us on November 4th when you will have the opportunity to hear about his new book about the city of Mountain View. At this meeting we will also be electing our Officers for the upcoming year. There are a couple of Committee positions available on the Board of Directors. Let us know if you are interested in joining us. The Board meets quarterly on a Wednesday evening.

The Wunderman House was a topic at one of our past Membership meetings, and some of you have asked if the Historical Association is still going to have a future event at the Wunderman House. It is on our "to do" list for this coming spring.

See you on Sunday, November 4th.

Pat Figueroa

Updates from Around Town

By Nick Perry
Newsletter Editor

Happy 110th Birthday to the City of Mountain View! On November 7, 2012 the City will celebrate its 110th anniversary of incorporation. Hard to believe it has already been a decade since the city was busy celebrating its Centennial! Some interesting facts about the city's incorporation:

- The vote to incorporate was held on 11/1/1902 and 58% of voters (152 men) voted for incorporation. 64 voted against.
- The 1902 town limits were the railroad, Pettis Avenue, El Camino Real and Calderon Avenue with a slight jog encompassing the elementary school on El Camino Real.
- Mountain View is the 5th oldest incorporated city in the county, but the 6th to incorporate. How's that? Alviso incorporated in 1852 but became part of San Jose in 1968.

Although there are not any official City sponsored-events scheduled to mark the city's 110th, the MVHA's Fall meeting just three days before will be a great way to mark the occasion. I'm looking forward to sharing some of the fascinating photos and stories uncovered while researching and writing my new book, Mountain View Then & Now. See page 6 for more information on the book and the MVHA meeting!

In other news, a new Downtown office building was approved by the City Council at 902 Villa Street, currently the location of the circa 1880s Pearson House. In August the Mtn. View Voice reported that a couple of parties have offered to have the house relocated to their private properties. Marina Marinovich is leading a campaign to relocate and restore the 130+ year old residential cottage on the same property, pictured above at 166 Bryant Street. Her idea is to have the structure relocated, restored, and opened to the public as an "Immigrant House" - an educational resource that tells the story of early laborers who came to Mountain View from around the world to start a new life. Stay tuned for updates.

Starving for Sopas

By Eugene Darrell Sharp
MVHA Member

In the summer of 1948 I marched with the Mountain View Union High Band under the direction of Lyle Campbell starting at the High School on Castro Street and ending across the railroad tracks at the IFES Portuguese Hall at 432 Stierlin Rd. The reward for marching in the Portuguese Parade was a dinner of Sopas. However, at 2 PM all that was left was a bowl of broth containing a pea-sized piece of bread. My marching band member friends did not even go into the Hall to receive the Sopas.

Fortunately three years ago Lucille Garcia Rodgers invited my wife Nancy and me to a delicious Sopas dinner consisting of slabs of beef, boiled cabbage, beef broth, and Portuguese bread all in stainless steel bowls. We could eat all that we wanted and there was plenty left to take home. There is no set price and one donates whatever one thinks the meal is worth.

Curling AVE 100

By Barbara Kinchen
Historical Data Chair

There have been recent inquiries about two of Mountain View's long-gone enterprises. In January 1959 the Peninsula Curling Rink opened at #257 Curling Avenue. Nearby homeowners immediately objected to the noise of the cooling equipment. The rink was closed in 1963 when the City's Planning Commission denied a request to open as a public skating rink.

Alma Street became Central Expressway. Curling Avenue was renamed Mayfield Avenue and was the main street into the Mayfield Malls.

OH, ROLL THAT STONE

Acting Mayor Harry True is shown above left as he "assumed the position" last week to fling the first stone which opened Mountain View's new curling rink on Alma st. Civic dignitaries, along with expert curlers shown in the background watch the councilman do the honors while Dick Sherwin, general manager at True's right, gives the acting mayor a little free advice.

Mountain View Register Leader article about the grand opening of Mountain View's curling rink.

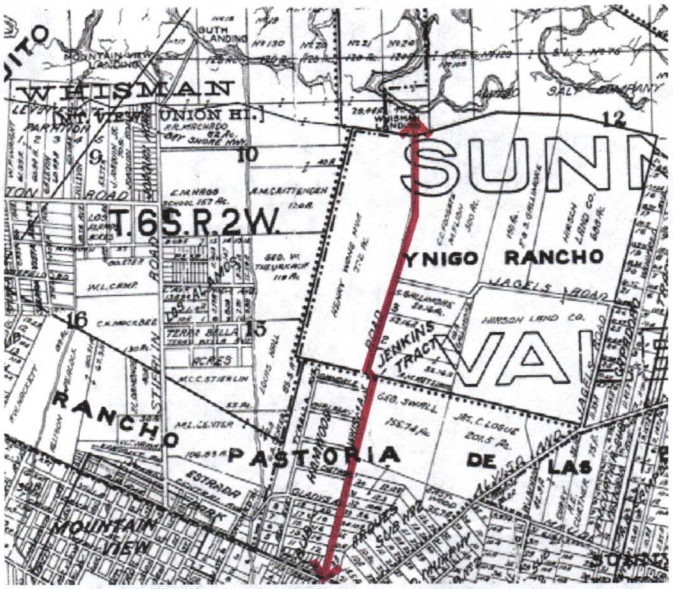

South Shore PORT 100

The Mountain View Register-Leader's May 8, 1925 edition showed drawings for a swimming pool being constructed at the end of Whisman Road. This site had been known over the years by various names: Bernard, Jagels, Whisman Landing and South Shore Port. The pool, known as Kingsport Salt Water Plunge, was in operation until about 1930. This 1929 map shows Whisman Road, leading to the landing site, through the Ynigo Rancho which became Moffett Field. Unfortunately, the Library's History Center has neither a photo of the pool nor a map showing its exact location.

SWIMMING POOL AND BATH HOUSE SOUTH SHORE PORT

Above is the architect's drawing of the swimming pool and bath house now being built at South Shore Port in Mountain View. The pool will be of solid concrete with sloping floor to accommodate all sizes of bathers. There will be plenty of dressing rooms and a spacious gallery for spectators. A wonderful system of electrical lighting will be installed with lights in the bottom of the pool for color effects. The lights will all be controlled from the office. Mrs. King and Mr. Field are the promoters and builders of the baths that are certain to become a very valuable asset to the community.

Mtn. View: Then & Now

The fascinating urban evolution of Mountain View will be the focus of our organization's general membership meeting on November 4. Nick Perry, our newsletter editor, has combined his background in City Planning and his interest Mountain View's past to author his second book on our city's history: Mountain View: Then & Now.

This new title from Arcadia Publishing illustrates how Mountain View has changed over time by pairing "then" and "now" photographs of 80 sites around the city. Historical images featured in the book come from the MVHA archives, the Mountain View Public Library, and from individual contributions from MVHA members. Most of the modern images were taken by local photographer Kimberly Chan. Both Kimberly and Nick grew up in Mountain View and graduated from Saint Francis High School in 2001.

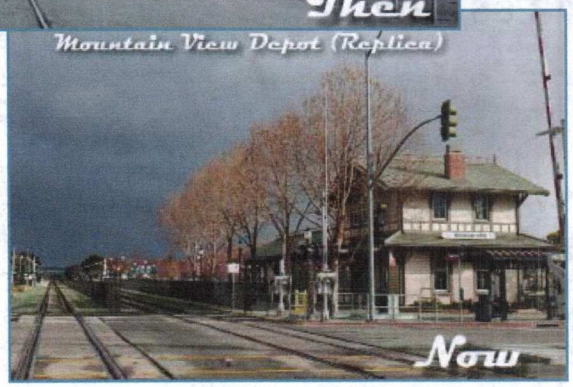

At our meeting Nick will present a photographic slide show featuring highlights from the book. The Association will also be selling the new book at the meeting, and Nick will be available to sign copies. The meeting begins at 2pm at the Adobe Building at 157 Moffett Blvd and is open to the general public, so feel free to bring family and friends! We hope to see you there!
