Dive into history this Summer!

"Spent many a summer day at that pool! Was a long ride on my bike from Franklin St, but oh that first jump off the high dive was so worth the sweaty ride."

"Love it! I had Dolphins swim team meets there and then I lifeguarded, taught swim lessons and coached synchronized swimming. Such fond memories."

"Loved swimming there, remember the giant pins they gave you after they put your clothes in a mesh bag. Adobe Creek Lodge was a favorite too. So many memories!"

A crowded day at the City pool at Rengstorff Park sometime in the 1960s provides the background of this montage. This photo was posted to our facebook page on the first day of summer and generated many memories, some of which are shared above. To join the conversation on-line visit: www.facebook.com/MVHistory

President's Message

By Patricia Figueroa
MVHA President

Hi Everyone,

Hope those of you who attended the City of Mountain View's Spring Parade in April noticed our Parade entry. A special "Thank You" to Eugene Sharp for offering us his splendid car which was filled with MVHA Boardmembers. After the parade Mountain View Historical Association had a very well attended table in Pioneer Park where we distributed a "coloring page" and mini-package of crayons to the children.

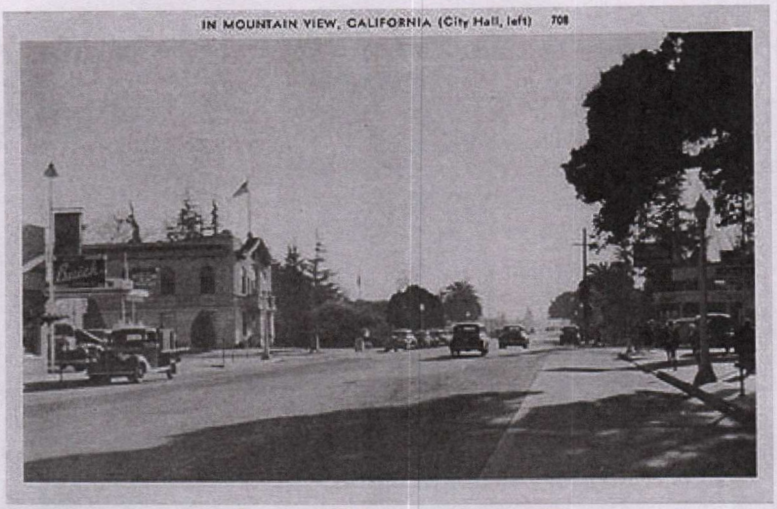

Our May program was a lot of fun. The California Pioneers of Santa Clara County shared with us some mini-movies from days past. The California Pioneers makes available to everyone, at no charge, their catalog of movies. All you have to do is look them up at www.californiapioneers.com.

Time for you to put the Mountain View Historical Annual BBQ on your calendar – save Sunday, August 4th, 12pm at Adobe House. Enclosed in this issue is an RSVP form. Help us with the planning by returning your reservation form in the near future. Reminder that we will again this year have some great Silent Auction items along with fun Raffle Items. If you can't attend but still want to support the Picnic – purchase some Raffle Tickets. You do not need to be present to win – if you win and are not present we will contact you after the Picnic.

Have a great summer and hope to see you at the BBQ.

New to the History Center

By Barbara Kinchen
Historical Data Chair

Received from Bea Sutherland, a former resident of Mountain View, an album with dozens of postcards. Dated 1909-1911 and carrying one-cent stamps, all are addressed to Miss Hilda Kalbula. The earlier ones went to San Francisco, but the later ones came to Mountain View in care of Mrs. Hutchinson at the American Hotel.

A few of the cards show buildings of nearby towns and two are interior photos of the Mountain View Post Office, pot-bellied stove included. Most are holiday themed cards - Christmas, Easter, Valentine's Day - very colorful with sentimental, humorous and even risque messages.

The album was bought at St. Joseph's Catholic Church rummage sale for 50-cents.

It took a little dectitive work to realize that Miss Hilda Kalbula was the lady I knew as Hilda Campbell, Mrs. William Campbell, of Franklin Street. She was an active member of the Historical Association and died in 1980.

Spring Snapshots

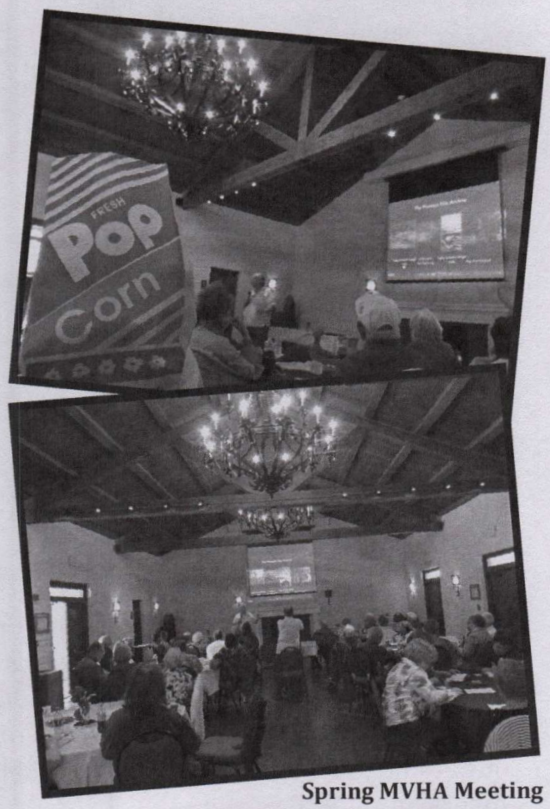

The MVHA has enjoyed an eventful Spring in Mountain View. Here are a few photos from recent events. Interested in joining in on the fun? Contact us for future opportunities! The more the merrier!

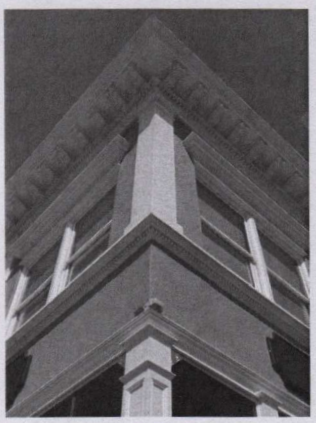

Spring Parade - April 27, 2013: MVHA Board Members rode down Castro Street in style at Mountain View's annual Spring Parade. After the parade, the MVHA set up a table at Pioneer Park with coloring pages and crayons for the children.

Living History Day - June 30, 2013: The MVHA co-hosted Living History Day at the Rengstorff House in Shoreline Park. Here we see members at our table, where MVHA books and our new membership brochure were available.

Spring MVHA Meeting - May 5, 2013: At our Spring Meeting the MVHA turned the Adobe Building into a movie theater with the help of the California Pioneers of Santa Clara County. The Pioneers screened some of their fascinating historic footage of the valley.

Mockbee Building Detail

Updates from Around Town

By Nick Perry
Newsletter Editor

Mockbee Makeover. Certainly not big news, but the Mockbee Building, located on the northeast corner of Castro and Villa Streets, was recently repainted. The handsome c. 1906 building's new gray and white scheme freshens up this venerable Downtown landmark.

Bryant Street Building Boom. A new chapter of Downtown Mountain View's long history is being built along Bryant Street. The City Council recently approved a new office building on the former site of Dunn's Automotive. Charles "Chuck" Dunn opened the auto shop in 1975. Mr. Dunn recently passed away at the age of 90. The new office building is one of three under construction along Bryant Street, including Bryant Park Plaza where the historic Pearson House and Immigant House once stood.

Immigrant House Update. In May the City Council selected 771 North Rengstorff Avenue as their first preference for a permanent home for the "Immigrant House." The 1.2 acre property was recently sold to the City by long-time owner Frances Stieper in hopes it would be turned into a City Park. We'll continue to provide updates on this project as it moves forward.

Hangar One Update: Restoration of Hangar One took a small step forward on March 1, 2013 when the Federal Government officially released a "Notice of Intent" calling for prospective tenants to submit bids for reuse and restoration of the Hangar. Stay tuned for more updates on the future of this iconic structure.

Street Talk

Lane AV 100

By Barbara Kinchen
Historical Data Chair

Howard Lane, Mountain View High School class of '58, was in the History Center talking about people, places, and events and mentioned that Lane Avenue was named for his family.

The street is only a couple of blocks long and comes into El Camino Real between Castro and Boranda. Clark's Charcoal Broiler is at the corner of El Camino and Lane Avenue.

William, Hurcial, and Wilbur Lane came from Texas in the early 1930's and were prominent businessmen in our area for almost forty years. They had creameries in Mountain View, Los Altos, and Sunnyvale, as well as furniture and appliance stores, a coin shop, and a drive-in restaurant.

The restaurant at 1313 El Camino Real opened in 1947, but soon after was operated by Johnny Mac's. After a fire in 1961 it again was Lane's Drive-In.

When I was in high school, the popular place for food, fun and gossip was just across Castro Street from the school at Bill Lane's Air Base Creamery. He made and sold something we called a "milkshake on a stick." Sometime in the 1940's Lanes operated a creamery right close to the Mountain View Theatre.
