VOTES FOR M.V. WOMEN!

OUR FALL 2020 EVENT

Mountain View might have been a small farming community when women were fighting to win the right to vote, but that doesn't mean this community wasn't active! As part of nation-wide celebrations honoring the centennial of the ratification of the 19th Amendment, the MVHA's fall 2020 webinar will focus on the stories of how Mountain View area women mobilized to help secure the right to vote over a century ago.

OUR GUEST SPEAKERS

Pamela Baird

Pamela Baird has been a resident of Mountain View since 1998. She has enjoyed the challenges and rewards of being a business owner for over thirty-five years. Six years ago she reduced the scope of the business, which has allowed more time to do other things. Pamela has served on the Human Relations Commission and the Environmental Planning Commission. Travel, arts of all kinds, exercise, and volunteering are important segments of her daily life. Researching women's suffrage efforts in Mountain View has been a fun diversion during the current COVID-19 times.

Dr. Amy Ellison

Dr. Amy Noel Ellison is the exhibition curator at the Los Altos History Museum, where she recently curated Rise Up!: The Fight for Women's Suffrage, an exhibition celebrating the 100th anniversary of women's right to vote. Dr. Ellison received her B.A. in History from Fresno State and her PhD in history from Boston University, where she wrote her dissertation on the 1775–76 American invasion of Canada. From 2016–18, Dr. Ellison was an Andrew W. Mellon Post-Doctoral Curatorial Fellow at the American Philosophical Society Museum in Philadelphia, and has also worked as a researcher at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

President's Message

By Nicholas Perry
MVHA President

Dear MVHA Members,

The end of summer and the start of fall 2020 have proven to be another tumultuous and challenging period. My heart goes out to those affected by the wildfires around the state, those struggling with the ongoing effects of the pandemic, and those just feeling overwhelmed by the weight of these trying times (I think that covers just about all of us!).

Like many people in the Bay Area, in fall I always look forward to the crisp, clear days, the college football games, the multitude of cultural events, and the building anticipation for all the traditions of the holiday season. So much of that has been upended this year. Crisp, clear days traded for unprecedented heat waves and wildfire smoke. Festivals and events canceled or made virtual. College football games held, but without the fans, bands, and pageantry. And instead of anticipation, the looming uncertainty over how to maintain holiday traditions in the face of the pandemic.

But while all this is going on, I've found comfort in the small things I once took for granted. Time spent with family in my social bubble is that much more precious. A hike on a day when the sea breezes have cleared out the smoke feels that much more invigorating. A friendly wave from a neighbor while taking an evening stroll is that much more appreciated. And despite everything going on, it's still autumn. Halloween decorations are still going up and trees are changing color; the change of seasons can still be seen and felt.

And speaking of change, November marks the end of my two-year term as the president of the MVHA. Pending the election at our annual meeting on November 1 (see page 4 for more information) someone new will be writing this column in the next edition of the Mtn. Review. I will still serve on the MVHA's Board of Directors as "Past President" and will remain just as involved with the organization as I am today. Instead of seeking reelection, I feel at this time it's better to create space for new members to join the Board. We have some great candidates and I'm excited to see the MVHA continue to build our "bench" of organizational leaders. The more people who are actively involved in our organization, either by serving on the Board or volunteering in other roles, the more institutional knowledge we build, and the more resilient and adaptable we become to change. And if 2020 has taught us anything, it's the importance of being resilient and adaptable!

And on that note, I encourage all members interested in helping us accomplish our mission to get involved! Our Board meetings are open to all interested; they're virtual now and easy to access from wherever you may be. We're a friendly and diverse group that always welcomes new faces. Just email us at info@mountainviewhistorical.org if you're interested.

In closing, I'd like to thank everyone for their support during my time as your president. I've truly enjoyed serving in this role and am proud of what we have accomplished over the past two years. We've debuted a beautiful new website, grown our membership, learned how to host virtual events, fostered stronger partnerships with other local organizations, and begun to proactively create a vision plan for what we hope to accomplish in the coming years. But there is still much more to be done! I look forward to continuing to work with the Board and all of our members on making the MVHA one of the most diverse and dynamic local history organizations in our region.

Take care,

—Nick

Oral History Program in the Works

By Nicholas Perry
MVHA President

The MVHA is proceeding with plans to initiate a new oral history program in 2021. Our hope is that the program will be a successor to the Mountain View Public Library's "Bittersweet: Memories of Old Mountain View" oral history project.

For those unfamiliar with "Bittersweet," the project took place in 1977 and focused on conducting oral history interviews with members of Mountain View's Japanese, Mexican, and Spanish communities. Written transcripts of the interviews are available at the Mountain Public View Library. The original recordings were digitized in 2017 and our now available online at: https://archive.org/details/mountainviewlibrary

With our new oral history project, our initial goal is to focus on members of ethnic communities not covered by "Bittersweet" that have historically had large populations in Mountain View such as (but not limited to) the Chinese, Croatian, Filipino, and Portuguese communities. We also want to focus on interviewing our most senior long-time residents, of all ethnicities, to ensure their memories are preserved for future generations. For the Filipino community, we are lucky to have a great head start: Our archives include oral history interviews conducted in the 1980s that were never transcribed or digitized. All we need is someone with the time to help us transcribe them! Let us know if you're interested.

Ways & Means Committee Chair Mark Perry is compiling a list of individuals we'd like to ask to participate in the program. If you're interested in participating, please email him at: mfperry75@gmail.com or call (510) 914-1921.

Board Elections 2020

By Emily Ramos
MVHA Treasurer & Nomination Committee Chair

It's election season! And this year, the MVHA is engaging in our own biennial democratic process. Many of you are probably unfamiliar with the organization's bylaws and election procedures, so we thought we'd share them here.

According to our bylaws, the duties of the MVHA's Officers are as follows:

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association, the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee. He/she shall appoint Standing and Special committees' chairs subject to the ratification of the Board of Directors. The president shall be an ex-officio member of all committees, except the Nominating Committee.

The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in his/her absence. In case of the death or resignation of the President, the Vice-President shall become President for the remainder of the term.

The Secretary shall keep a correct and permanent record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Association and the Board of Directors; shall keep copies of current Articles and Bylaws; shall keep a list of the names and address of all members; shall, in case of the death or resignation of both the President and Vice-President, become the President until a President and Vice-President can be elected.

The Treasurer shall receive all monies of the Association; keep an itemized account, in a permanent file, of all receipts and disbursements; present a written income and expense report at meetings of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors, and for the quarterly newsletter; turn over to his/her successor, within ten days of vacating office, all books, records, papers, and equipment including all data that is recorded on any electronic/digital medium accompanied by a hard copy of the same.

For election procedures, our bylaws state the following:

> ARTICLE IX – NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS
> Section 1. Officers shall be elected biennially in November. They shall assume their duties immediately following the adjournment of the Annual Meeting at which they are elected. Election shall be by majority vote.*
>
> Section 2. At the August meeting in an election year, the President shall recommend a nominating committee for members' approval, which shall present to the annual meeting the nominees for each office. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting.

We need at least 30 members to constitute a quorum, so please be sure to join us at our Zoom meeting on November 1. Elections will take place at the start of the meeting through a live poll.*

The elected officers, along with the most recent Past President, comprise the MVHA's Executive Committee. At the December board meeting, the Executive Committee appoints our organization's four standing committee chairs to the Board of Directors: the Historical Data Committee, Membership Committee, Newsletter Committee, and Ways & Means Committee. After the Executive Committee ratifies the special committee chairs, the Board then appoints two Directors-at-Large to the Board.

As your Nomination Committee Chair, I'm very pleased to share the current slate of nominees for election:

President: Pamela Baird
Vice-President: Robert Cox
Treasurer: Emily Ramos
Secretary: Jamil Shaikh

Nominations can also be made during the November meeting, so it's not too late for any interested members to toss their hat in the ring for any Board position! Please contact me at emily00@gmail.com with any questions.

Mtn. View Memories

By Margaret Cooper
MVHA Member

I was born in 1930 on Dale Avenue in the middle of a cherry orchard with a few acres leased by my father, Harry Nakamura, to raise raspberries. Our closet neighbor, Annie, and her husband didn't have children and lived within walking distance from our small plot of land.

Papa built a little cottage which we moved to San Antonio Road when his lease ran out and subsequently subleased from Eugene Calvo, who in turn leased his property from the Pacchettis. I started first grade at Mountain View Grammar School on El Camino Real when Kenneth Slater was principal. Our house was moved to the other side of the milk barn from the Calvos' whitewashed cottage. Beside the cow barn there was a milk house and hay barn where Mr. Calvo parked his truck. Mr. Calvo hired the Macedos who were braceros coming annually from Mexico. Maggie Macedo used to walk with us through the orchard of the Pears' to catch the school bus that stopped on the highway. My older brother, David, and younger brothers, Kenny and George, my parents, and I lived next to the Calvos from 1936 to 1942 when our family was interned during the war. Eugene and Emily Calvo had several children of similar ages to ours, and we were close neighbors and friends celebrating birthdays with only each other to invite.

Our mother baked a birthday cake and we sang happy birthday with no presents or ice cream since we had no refrigerator. Yet the memory of these simple traditions remains with me still as happy memories of a depression-era childhood.

Mountain View during the Great Depression was a small farming community with acres of fruit trees that bloomed profusely along El Camino from Mountain View to San Jose.

Manual, Victor, Sally, Trini, and Eugene Calvo were our only neighbors and friends. The Calvos became upstanding citizens of Mountain View with Victor becoming mayor. All of the Calvo family have become outstanding citizens despite their parents' humble beginnings as immigrants from Spain. Trini became my best friend even through the War; while I was in a concentration camp, she stood by me and continues to this day. She married her Spanish teacher, Bob Callahan, who courted her after she graduated from high school. Their marriage lasted until his death when he was well into his 90s. Our community has seen many changes, both economic and social, and mostly I hope for the better. Despite the poverty we experienced and the injustice of the internment, I am grateful for the many happy memories I retain of my early childhood in Mountain View.

MV High 1950s Ephemera

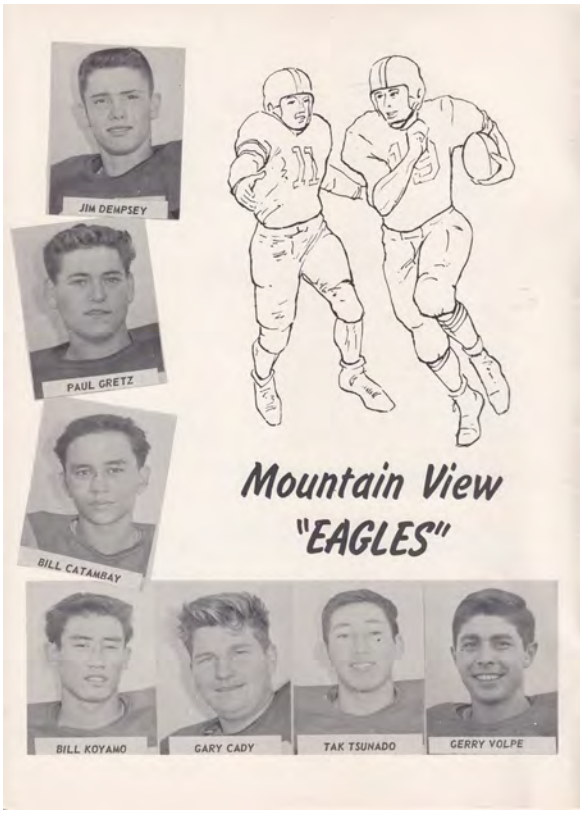

The MVHA was very pleased to accept a collection of mid-1950s Mountain View High School ephemera from Toni Bozicevich Rodriguez (MVHS Class of 1958). Toni donated six programs from Mountain View High School football games and 105 editions of the high school newspaper, The Eagle covering the 1954 through 1958 school years. Once the Mountain View History Center reopens, these items will be added to our archives. In the meanwhile, we're happy to share a preview of some of the highlights from this new collection on the next three pages of our newsletter.

A very autumnal football game program cover from Mountain View High's November 10, 1955 game against Washington High School in Centerville (Fremont). Note the 6:00 p.m. kickoff time; Mountain View High's field (located where Eagle Park is today) featured stadium lights salvaged from the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island. Games under the lights were big community events in the 1950s. Stadium lights are currently being installed at the modern-day Mountain View High School and Los Altos High School fields for the first time this year.

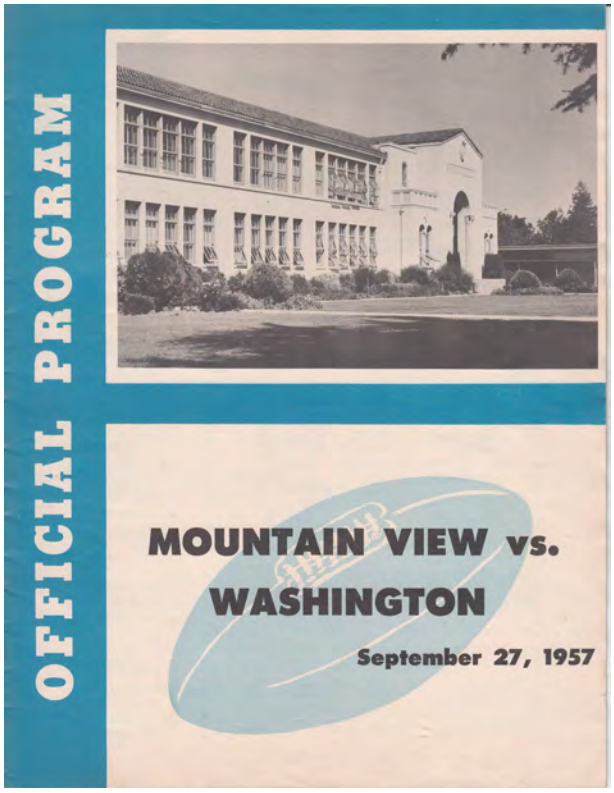

Foster's Freeze Was "the place to meet after the game" according to this 1957 ad. Foster's Freeze was founded in 1946 in Inglewood, California. The Mountain View location on El Camino Real was one of the company's first locations. In its later years, the Mountain View location ended its relationship with Foster's Freeze and was known as Big Burger Freeze. It closed in 2000 and remained vacant until the building was finally demolished in 2015.

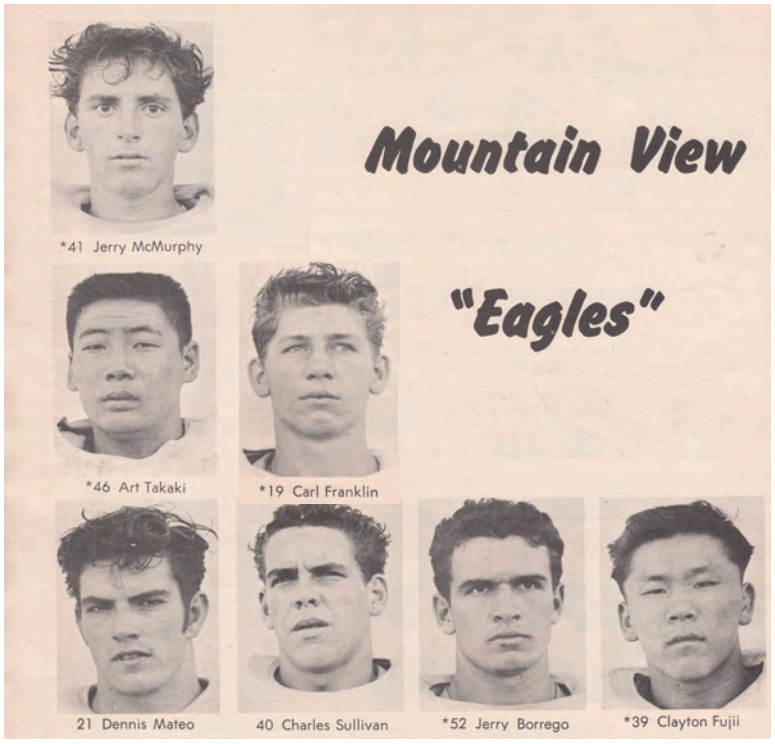

Members of the 1955 Mountain View Eagles varsity football team.

The inside of the November 10, 1955 football game program shows local business ads and a photo of Mountain View High School varsity cheer leaders. Note the ads for Russell Realty and Jane Ostriy Apparel, two examples of many ads in the program placed by businesses located in Los Altos. The presence of so many ads from Los Altos is a reminder that in the mid-1950s the Mountain View Eagles were the only team in both towns. Los Altos High School was built in 1954, and it took a few years before the school would field its own football team.

Johnny Mac's was another popular post-game hangout for local teens in the 1950s. Johnny Mac's opened in 1948 in a building originally constructed for Lane's Drive-In in 1947. It was named for one of its three owners, Johnny MacLane. The drive-in was known for its carhop Service and "Big Mac" burgers, long before McDonald's served their version. Although the drive-in closed decades ago, the building still stands today at 1313 West El Camino Real. It's slated for demolition to make way for a new housing development that was approved by the city in August 2020.

Based on this advertisement, its legendary "Parisian" burger was known as the "French Deluxe" during the drive-in's early years. You can still get a Parisian Burger today at a few local restaurants.

Eagle Makes Debut Today

(EDITORIAL)

Most of you students have been looking forward to the first edition of our new paper and here it is. We aim to bring you a lot of laughs and the latest in news.

This year we've added 22 members to our staff. And we've also added two other big attractions. A radio program of our own and a quarterly magazine put out by the Journalism Class.

If there are a few blank spaces in the paper please bear with us. It's rather hard to get coordinated in a journalism class as large as ours.

We know all you freshmen and new students will be glad to know that the newspaper comes out once a week. And if you see your name in it, don't be alarmed because we do a lot of snoopin' around and it's just our way of saying, "Welcome, Freshmen. Glad you're here and whatever you do make the most of your high school years."

Throughout the year you'll find that The Eagle will be a guide for you. You'll learn the way the student body is run, the traditions, the variety shows, sports, or anything you could want to know. We only hope that we can guide you once again through the year and to all you new students, the best of luck.

We hope to bring you a better paper than we had last year and we know we can do it with your help. You may not realize this but you readers are the subjects we get graded on and without you what good would a paper be?

We hope that you will become a part of our paper so that we can all become more interested in the little world around us. Whenever you have anything to say write a little, sign your name, and we will print it and see what others have to say, also.

The image above shows the masthead of the paper from its debut edition at the start of the 1954–55 school year. When Mountain View High School on Castro Street closed, it sent half its student body, its colors, and its eagle mascot to Los Altos High School. As such, the current name of the student paper at Los Altos High is eagle inspired: The Talon. If you're curious to see what today's Eagles are writing about, visit: https://lahstalon.org/.

AMENDMENTS TO M.V'S CONSTITUTION

At the last council meeting there were four amendments to the constitution proposed. They are to be voted on by the student body within two weeks after voted on by the council. They are explained simply in the following sentences:

First Amendment -- The name of this student body shall be Mountain View High School. The word "Union" will be struck out because, since the building of Los Altos High School, it is no longer a union of the two cities.

For decades, Mountain View High was officially known as Mountain View Union High School. The words "Union High School" were even etched in stone above the high school building's main entrance on Castro Street (see above). This December 2, 1955 article explains the word "Union" was dropped from the school's name, "because, since the building of Los Altos High School, it is no longer a union of the two cities."

EVENING IN SWEDEN

"Evening in Sweden" was the theme of the first night meeting of the Affiliation Club held last Monday in the band room. The meeting was open to the public.

Highlight of the evening was Karen Halvorsen's talk on her trip to Europ. She also showed slides.

This was the first of a series of monthly meetings which will feature guest speakers who have traveled all over the world.

Club members are planning a field trip to the American Steamship Company in San Francisco. Other field trips are also being planned.

One of the current projects of the club is to send American literature to several European countries which have expressed a desire for good reading material.

The club is open to the entire student body and freshmen and sophomores are especially encouragced to join.

According to President Don Kirkorian the club is planning many interesting activities and field trips this year and it should be a successful year.

BIG GAME FESTIVITIES

Who will it be seems to be the question going on around the campus this week. It not only means our '56 football queen, but which class is to win the float contest and maybe even who will be Varsity Champs this year.

Most of the festivities started off the beginning of the week and have really been building up to something big.

All week the classes have been working deligently on their floats, each one trying to out do the other. All of the queen candidates have spent a nerve racking week wondering who will be selected. The football players too have been working extra hard this week. All of the Student Body has been boasting spirit for this game.

Nov. 13 (Tuesday) P.T.A. - 8.00
Nov. 15 (Thursday) JV Football - Los Gatos - Here 3:30

The rally and parade will add much more to this week of suspense and excitement. Even the Eagle Staff has tried to make this paper extra special.

Tonight will tell all: before the beginning of the Big Game the coronation will be held; the beautiful girls will cross the field with their escourts. After they leave the field the players will then take over. For 30 minutes everyone will probably see some of the best playing ever done by M. V.

Half time will approach us, the band and drill team will take over, and then one of the four classes will have their moment of awaited glory.

After the game everyone will stay for the Alma Mater. Then there will be nothing left of M. V.'s big homecoming week except memories.

Its been a great week, let's not end it today; let's come out tonight and FIGHT for M.V.

The November 9, 1956 edition of the student newspaper was focused on the festivities surrounding the school's annual football game against Fremont High School of Sunnyvale. At the time, Fremont High was Mountain View's main rival, with an annual football series stretching back to 1928. The football game between the M.V. Eagles and Fremont Indians was known simply as the "Big Game," likely inspired by the California versus Stanford college football rivalry.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

By Anita Lopez

JIM SOLDAN six, Rah Rah Rah Rah . . . Jim Soldan, Yeah!

Now you know what M. V. male stands 5'9" and has brown eyes and light brown hair. Jim gained his 135 pounds on steaks and uses all of it playing center on the 130's squad.

Since all of his 17 years began, Jim has liked girls best of all, but he's partial to girls 5' 3", brown eyes, dark hair, and with a nice personality. You flirtatious girls just never mind.

Jim claims to like anything with M. M. in it — didn't realize he was such a great Micky Mouse fan. He's also real proud of his dark blue, '49 Merc. the one with the Bardahl stickers.

Since Jim has a special knack for getting into trouble with certain teachers, he'd like to go to San Jose State and become a teacher. Being a proud and glorious senior, Jim would like to see M. V. BEAT FREMONT!

Three cheers to an all right guy.

Mountain View, boasting one of the strongest teams in the S.C.V.A.L., will meet the Indians of Fremont for a show down tonight on the home green. This game's result will be a big factor: who will wear the football crown this season? Will it be the end of a long standing rivalry between Mtn. View and Fremont? Next year Los Altos will enter the S.C.V.A.L. Will this change things?

Last Friday night the Eagles ran wild over the Santa Clara Panthers chalking up a 27 - 0 victory. Again leading the pack was mighty John Escobar the terror of the turf. He scored twice in the first five minutes of play and later on Barry Robison, another outstanding player scored, then Sophomore Tyrone Fabro added his six points. Don Wolfe and his toe added the extra conversion points.

At the present time all eyes are looking in the direction of tonights tilt. ....No two teams could be more evenly matched as the Eagles and the Indians; but since Fremont tied with Campbell last Friday night, they may go into the contest as the underdog.

But no matter how the facts add up, no one can really say what the out come of this game will be. Anything might happen . . .

Come out and support your team; it's your game as well as the player's. If we win, we all win. If we lose, we all lose.

GOOD LUCK EAGLES !!

The "Sporting Blue" section of the newspaper gave more information about the 1956 Big Game against Fremont. In addition to the high stakes of a rivalry game, the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League (SCVAL) championship was on the line. The Eagles ended up winning 14-7 and earning a share of the title in front of a standing-room only crowd. Writing about the game, student reporter Henry Salas presciently wondered, "Will it be the end of a long-standing rivalry between Mtn. View and Fremont? Next year Los Altos will enter the SCVAL. Will this change things?" Well, it did change things, but not quite as quickly as expected. In echoes of today's world, the debut rivalry game between Los Altos High and Mountain View High was canceled due to the 1957 flu pandemic. But over time, Los Altos High replaced Fremont High School as Mountain View's main rival. Today, the Los Altos versus Mountain View game is known as "The Pride Bowl."

THANKSGIVING

November 28, 1924 front page of the Mountain View Register-Leader

Halloween is almost here, and Thanksgiving is right around the corner. The past year has brought challenges like none of us can remember. Even still, there is much to be thankful for. As we send out our last newsletter of 2020, the MVHA extends our thanks to our members and all those who have supported our organization. We wish you all health and happiness and look forward to the day when we can all gather again in the historic Adobe Building. Until then, take care, and see you online!
